Heritage Corridor CVB Announces Summer Hours for Joliet Visitors Center

Joliet, Illinois, June 2, 2014 – In collaboration with the City of Joliet, the Heritage Corridor Convention & Visitor's Bureau is opening its Joliet Visitors Center at Billie Limacher Bicentennial Park for the summer season. The Visitors Center, located at 30 N. Bluff Street in Joliet, will be open from June 2 thru August 29, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, from 11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Area residents and out of town visitors are encouraged to stop in and browse a wide selection of brochures and travel guides. Maps, summer events, and general information on some of the most popular locations, attractions and events are available free of charge. Additional information on the Visitors Center can be made available by calling 815-724-3378. The Joliet Visitors Center at Billie Limacher Bicentennial Park is operated in partnership with the City of Joliet and Heritage Corridor Convention and Visitors Bureau.

Tourists to the Joliet region, and local residents looking for interesting activities, are encouraged to visit and participate in any of the following highlighted attractions and events. Some of the most popular venues include, but are not limited to, the following: Joliet Area Historical Museum offers exhibits and features the Route 66 Welcome Center and gift shop. The Museum is also hosting a Summer Concert Series. The Billie Limacher Bicentennial Park is opening its 40th Season of Concerts on the Hill on Thursday nights, and offers theatre performances, as well. The beautiful and historic Rialto Square Theatre has a full schedule of summer concerts for all ages. For sports fans, the Joliet Slammers ballgames at Silver Cross Field offer a great family or friend fun night. And one of Illinois' largest attractions for visitors, the Chicagoland Speedway and Route 66 Raceway will be hosting major events this summer. Interested persons are encouraged to stop into the Joliet Visitors Center for any of the free information available for a fantastic summer of heritage tourism with a twist.

The Heritage Corridor Convention and Visitors Bureau creates economic impact along the Illinois and Michigan Canal through tourism marketing and development. For more information, go to www.HeritageCorridorCVB.com or call 800.926.CANAL (2262).
